EWC-25 Wide Combo Bench w/Leg Developer

STRONG – Combines 2" x 2" 12-gauge tubular steel frames, reinforced corner brackets, heavyweight reinforcement plates and 2" thick high density foam padding, to deliver strength equipment that is solid and comfortable.

SMART – A focus on the basics, such as streamlined designs and compact frame components, makes the Gladiator Series easy to use and easy to fit into any lifestyle. You won't find any flashy aluminum accents or expensive brand labeling on the machine, just solid straight forward design elements. This no-frills approach to equipment design means higher value, and that's smart!

RELIABLE – The Gladiator Series is backed by a comprehensive three year warranty* and TuffStuff's forty-one year reputation for building the industry's most reliable strength equipment!

STRONG – SMART – RELIABLE

Great qualities in ancient warriors and modern day strength equipment. So whether you're a fitness expert looking to add to your home gym, or a weekend warrior wanting to unleash your inner Gladiator, you're ready for the Gladiator Series by TuffStuff Fitness!
