Awesomeness

Concerts beyond compare

"I would compare California Philharmonic under the direction of Victor Vener to Leonard Bernstein and the New York Philharmonic and Arthur Fiedler and the Boston Pops. All three... flawlessly combine classical and popular music."

Dennis Karmazyn,
Internationally-Renowned Cellist

The place where music comes to life

The Music Center's Walt Disney Concert Hall is where the whole world listens to music. Its gleaming steel panels, with their spectacular 3-D curves, signal to all who see them that this is a destination like none other.

Nestled in the heart of Downtown Los Angeles, superstar architect Frank Gehry's masterpiece houses one of the greatest acoustic environments for music ever created. Its striking curves and angles create an intimate seating arrangement that gives concertgoers great sight lines, as well as incredible sound.

The concert hall is easily accessible to major freeways and light rail, has convenient on-site parking, as well as multiple dining options, a rooftop park and the popular aerial walkway, which winds along the façade's signature panels, with stunning views of Los Angeles in all directions.
